

Rebuilding Trust in the Workplace

LEARN, UNLEARN, RELEARN

WORKPLACE INVESTIGATIONS

Workplace investigations help employers determine whether misconduct occurred. However, the investigation process often escalates uncertainty and distrust among the people directly and indirectly involved. This is frequently overlooked and needs to be addressed after the investigation.

THREE STEPS FOR TRUST RESTORATION

Our experts utilize a thoughtful approach when facilitating sensitive, insightful conversations.

1. Acknowledgment
2. Introspection
3. Restoration

We rebuild and strengthen relationships to establish common goals and vision.
