

Executive Roundtable

The Executive Roundtable is a structured forum for executives to dig deeper and examine what it means to be an inclusive leader. These sessions challenge your executives to be introspective, open up and recognize opportunities for both individual and organizational growth. We introduce a common language, prioritize and model human connections and explore provocative, sensitive, and relevant topics in Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging (DEIB). We provide tools, tactics, and techniques to engage executives on how to handle sensitive conversations and simplify complex goals, and explore various business performance issues impacted by cognitive, social and institutional biases.

Outcomes of the Percipio Company Executive Roundtable:

- Learn to tell your own identity story. Increase your sense of agency.
- See yourself in the solution and an active champion for strategic initiatives.
- Embrace diversity as a mission-critical strength and business imperative, not a problem that needs to be fixed.
- Cultivate a language and proficiency to boldly embrace sensitive workplace situations and relationships.
